OVER 500 UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE FOR 2005 !!!

The University has a significant number of new scholarships available in 2005 for undergraduate students who are experiencing financial hardship. The scholarships are intended to alleviate some of the costs of university attendance and include:

- the federally funded Commonwealth Learning Scholarships (CLS), 280 Commonwealth Education Costs Scholarships available (valued at $2042 a year) and 206 Commonwealth Accommodation Scholarships (valued at $4084 a year);
- the UQ Excellence Scholarships – 30 scholarships available and valued at $6000 a year;
- the Group of Eight (Go8) – 4 scholarships valued at $6000 a year; and
- UQ-Link Residential Support Scholarships. – 20 scholarships valued at $6000 (available only for the first year of study).

Students can apply for one or more of the scholarships by downloading the &UG scholarships at UQ application form (http://www.uq.edu.au/myadvisor/index.html?page=1127). Applicants for a Commonwealth Learning Scholarship are advised to read the UQ Commonwealth Learning Scholarship guidelines available on the web.

Please note that recent changes to eligibility criteria for Commonwealth Accommodation Scholarships (CAS) may mean that applicants who were deemed ineligible in 2004 may now be eligible to receive one of these scholarships in 2005.
